

I support RM-10867 fully. Not only will it improve amateur radio, it might help preserve it for the future. It certainly will add to the possibility of better homeland security by having more amateur capable of helping in emergencies with expanded capabilities.